Area Overview

Unleash your inner Bruce Wayne and embrace the world-famous bats of Austin, Texas. From April to October, approximately 1 million bats take a daily trip from Austin's Congress Avenue Bridge to the countryside in search of food. They leave around sunset and return early the next morning. The Drury Inn and Suites is only a few miles from the bridge, so bring your bat goggles. What you don't need to bring are any breakfast items, as Drury's free HOT! QUIKSTART® breakfast, including eggs, Belgian waffles and much more is a proven stimulus for bat watching.

Aside from being the acclaimed 'city with the bats', Austin is also known for its rich artistic culture. The Live Music Capital of the World, Austin is home to several renowned music festivals and is a must-stop for many bands on their nationwide tours.
