Area Overview

No, you didn't step onto the set of a foreign film—you're in Frankenmuth, Michigan! Frankenmuth is an adorable town with rich German traditions, beautiful Franconian-style architecture and the world's largest Christmas store to boot. The town has shared its German heritage with the rest of the world since 1846, when German settlers came to Michigan.

Every year, Frankenmuth draws over 3 million tourists to its Bavarian shops and restaurants—and many of those tourists love to stay at the Drury Inn and Suites of Frankenmuth. At "Little Bavaria's" Drury Inn, you can wake up to Drury's free Hot Breakfast every morning and wind down each evening with our free 5:30 Kickback® with hot food and cold beverages. But don't get too full on Drury's excellent food and snacks—you'll want to save plenty of room for the delicious Bavarian cooking nearby.
