Drury Plaza Hotel Riverwalk

Area Overview

Along the San Antonio River, you won't see any barges, Polar Bear Club events or rustic gambling boats. Instead you'll find tropical walkways, gourmet restaurants and rare boutique shops lining the banks of the peaceful river. You could even call it a luxury river. And there's no better place to experience this luxury river's delights than the Drury Plaza on the San Antonio River Walk.

When we say "on the River Walk" we mean it. While it's not recommended, you could easily cast a fishing line from your room into the river (well, if there were fish in the river, but there aren't). We also mean it when we say this hotel is beautiful. Formerly the Alamo Bank, this 24-story skyscraper was renovated to maintain its historical character while creating modern comfort. The lobby features 50-foot ceilings, travertine flooring and stained glass windows—forming the perfect ambience.
