Area Overview

Don't mess with Meridian, Mississippi. In 1864, the city was burned to the ground—but its resilient citizens quickly rebuilt it in 3 hours. Alright, maybe not that quick, but they did rebuild their railroad in 26 days, which is still pretty impressive. Since then, the determined residents of Meridian continue to protect and improve their city, most recently with a new Drury Inn & Suites.

With all of these free amenities (and our flat screen HD TVs to boot) it will be tough to pry yourself from your hotel room—but we believe its worth it to change out of your sweats and hit the town. The city is full of unique attractions, including the Bonita Lakes, Meridian Museum of Art and the Riley Center. Go ahead and click that little bell on the top of the web page and experience Meridian for yourself!
